Kelley houses many New Haven treasures. Society (1930). This museum by J. Federick 25. New Haven Museum and Historical recreational trail. (Red portion complete.) Former canal and railway converted into a 24. Farmington Canal Greenway (1835). Yale "secret society." temple by Richard Morris Hunt that houses a 23. Scroll and Key (1869). Exotic Moorish Haven Symphony Orchestra. Carrere & Hastings, it is home to the New 22. Woolsey Hall (1901). Designed by ter Camp, and Roger Sherman. ing place of Eli Whitney, Noah Webster, Waltian Revival Entrance by Henry Austin. Rest-21. Grove Street Cemetery (1795). Egypsociety" to accept women and minorities. R.H. Robinson, this was the first Yale "secret 20. Book and Snake (1901). Designed by library boasts a rare Guttenberg Bible. Owens, and Merril-this translucent marble Designed by Gordon Bunshaff of Skimore, 19. Beinecke Rare Book Library (1963). library designed by James Gamble Rogers. 18. Sterling Library (1930). Yale's main Maya Lin to honor female Yale graduates. 17. Women's Table (1993). Designed by Louis Kahn's final work. 16. Yale Center for British Art (1974).

"secret societies."

15. Skull and Bones (1856). Oldest of Yale's Henry Austin as the original Yale library. 14. Dwight Chapel (1842). Designed by tionary war hero Nathan Hale is in front. vard's Massachusett's Hall. A statue of Revolubuilding in New Haven is modeled after Har-13. Connecticut Hall (1750). The oldest that provides entrance to the Old Campus. 12. Phelps Gate (1895). Yale's "front door" Town. America's first Gothic Revival Church. 11. Trinity Church (1914). Built by Ithiel crypt. 20,000+ New Haveners are buried here. the old burial ground and features a basement site of the original meeting house. It sits atop Asher Benjamin and built by Ithiel Town, is the Crypt (1640-1812). The church, designed by 10. Center Church (1815) and New Haven congregants of the Center Church. Hoadley, this English-style church united former 9. United Church (1815). Built by David signed this brick and marble building.

8. Yale Visitor Center (1767). The oldest private residence in New Haven was built by John Pierpont, grandson of a Yale founder.

9. United Church (1815). Built by David court house. 7. Public Library (1911). Cass Gilbert de-

6. State Superior Court (1909). Allen and Williams architects designed this Greco-Roman

5. WWI Memorial (1929). This flagpole designed by Douglas Orr features carved silhouettes and the names of New Haven soldiers killed in action.

Designed by John Fergerson Weir, this functional monument provided water to both people and horses before the advent of the automobile.

 Exchange Building (1832). New Haven's first multi-story commercial building built by William Jehiel Forbes.
 Bennett Memorial Fountain (1907).

Designed by James Gamble Rogers.

2. U.S. District Court House (1913).

1. City Hall (1861) and Amistad Memorial (1992). High Victorian Gothic building by Henry Austin which has been incorporated into a larger government building designed by Herbert S. Newman. On the site of the old jail (in front of City Hall) stands the three-sided Amistad Memorial sculpted by Ed Hamilton. The sculpture chronicles the Amistad trial from 1839-

The Historic Walking Tour centers around the 18-acre Green— historically the center of nine squares of the original New Haven boundary. The Green continues to be a tranquil heart of the City and a location for many cultural events.

Directions and Parking Areas:

Depending on your anticipated length of stay in New Haven, onstreet metered parking through the City is available for 1- to 2-hour intervals during the day until 8 pm. Ample parking is available at many private or public structures at specified rates per hour. Parking structures are located on Temple Street south of Chapel Street and behind City Hall.

Permitted Activities:

Dogs are permitted on New Haven's city streets on leash. Please bag and pick up all animal waste.

For more information about this location, contact:

City of New Haven Department of Parks, Recreation & Trees (203) 946-6086 This project made possible through a grant from the National Recreational Trails Program, the Federal Highway Administration, and the Connecticut Department of Environmental Protection.

Mapping for this brochure has been produced by New Haven City Plan Department. Information for this brochure is excerpted from a brochure by the New Haven Museum and Historical Society.

South Central Regional Council of Governments

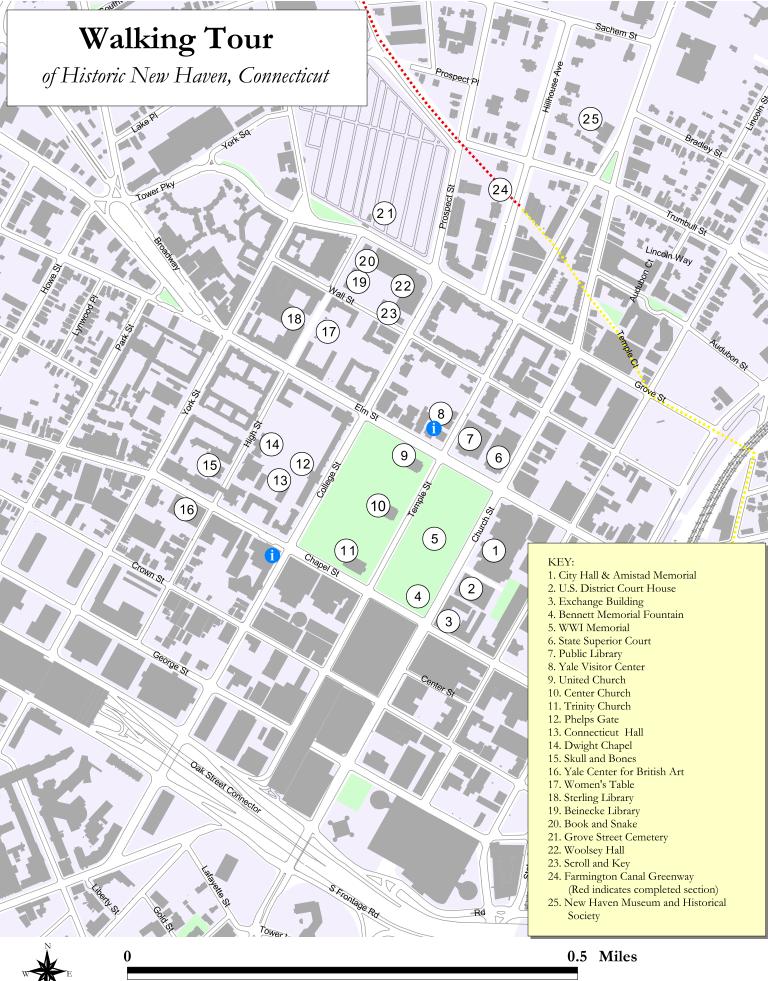

127 Washington Avenue, 4th Floor West North Haven, CT 06473

> Phone: (203) 234-7555 Fax: (203) 234-9850 E-mail: trails@scrcog.org

# 15

NEW HAVEN HISTORIC WALK

New Haven, CT

New Haven City Plan Department 2006